

International Invitational Montreal (CAN)

news

- Dalton leads 2011 Winter Cup all-around after preliminaries
- January Faces in the Gym athletes
- 6 more gymnasts qualify for 2011 Nastia Liukin Supergirl Cup
- All-session ticket packages now on sale for 2011 Visa Championships
- Competition at 2011 Winter Cup Challenge begins this week
- Gymnasts help open Indiana Convention Center
- USA wins 12 medals in Montreal

USA wins 12 medals in Montreal

02/01/2011

- International Invitational Results: Junior | Senior
- World Cup Senior Results

MONTREAL, Que., Canada, Jan. 31, 2011 – The USA won a total of 12 medals (four gold, five silver and three bronze) over the weekend at the 2011 Montreal (Canada) Rhythmic Gymnastics International Invitational and World Cup at the Centre Pierre Charbonneau sports hall in Montreal, Que.

Alexis Page of New York City won the senior all-around title at the Montreal Rhythmic Gymnastics International Invitational with a 92.125. Polina Kozitskiy of Fountainville, Pa., claimed the bronze with a 90.525. Austria's Sophia Lindtner took the silver (91.800).

Page, who trains at Aviator Sports and Recreation, also medaled in all four event finals. She finished first in clubs, scoring a 23.250; second in ball (23.050) and ribbon (23.075); and third in hoop (22.750). Kozitskiy, who trains at Philadelphia Rhythmic Academy, was second in clubs (22.775), fourth in hoop (22.500) and ribbon (22.650), and fifth on ball (22.600).

Lindtner claimed the titles in hoop (22.925), ball (23.450) and ribbon (23.250).

Earlier in the junior invitational division, U.S. junior Jazzy Kerber of Highland Park, Ill./North Shore Rhythmics, won four medals. She won the clubs gold medal (23.675), the hoop silver medal (23.750), and the bronze medal for both ribbon (22.750) and the all-around (90.850). Cindy Lu of Blaine, Minn./Twin Cities Rhythmic, was seventh in the all-around.

Alexis Page and Polina Kozitskiy
© Diane Bidermann